

MR. REID IS NOTIFIED.

Officially Told of His Nomination for the Vice Presidency.

HE AVOWS HIS PARTY LOYALTY

And Feels Assured of the Republican Success at the Polls.

SYMPATHY EXPRESSED FOR MR. BLAINE

NEW YORK, June 21.—The members of the committee appointed by the Minneapolis convention to notify Mr. Whitehead Reid of his nomination for the Vice Presidency have been for several days gathering at the Fish Avenue Hotel in this city.

The committee arrived at White Plains about 11:15 o'clock, and proceeded at once to Mr. Reid's residence.

"MR. REID.—The National Republican Convention, recently held in Minneapolis, selected a representative from each State and Territory from among its delegates to notify you that the great Republican party of the nation had selected you as its candidate for Vice President of the United States.

"This honor, one of the highest which a free and thoughtful people can bestow, came to you unthought and with unannouncedly raredly witnessed. The American people appreciate the patient and skillful diplomacy by which you opened the markets of France to the present crop of the securing of a market is the ultimate object of all nations in modern politics, and your success in that great field will command for you the hearty approval of the producers of the United States.

"Mr. Reid replied in the following terms: "Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen: "Your visit to my home and this formal statement sinks deep in my mind the impression which the known act of the convention had already produced. The occasion is too great for the expression of merely personal feelings. Even my natural and heartfelt sense of gratitude for the confidence shown and the high trust devolved seems in this case too unimportant to those you represent for more than a word. The party which has guided this country on its path of prosperity with but four years' interval since 1860 gives official notice through its duly authorized representatives in 44 States and five Territories of its choice for the second office within the gift of 65,000,000 of freemen, who cover a continent and are soon also to be numbered among the nations of the world.

"A profound sense of responsibility and a most earnest desire to discharge the trust you have reposed, to the satisfaction of those you now represent and to the benefit of the best interests of the country afterward, are the overmastering emotions of the hour. Not having sought the great honor you confer as you have just stated, I am the more proud in saying that as a citizen and a Republican I shall not shrink from the duty you impose. There will be a more convenient opportunity for such expression of political convictions as may be thought appropriate to the times and to the actual issues.

He adopts the Platform in Full.

"But having already carefully considered the statement of our party principles, put forth by your convention, I may say at once that I accept and adopt them in full. They are the principles and the party under the sway of which the country has attained its phenomenal growth and prosperity—under which the plain people have ruled; labor has been freed, honored and better rewarded than elsewhere; the largest example of equality before the law the world has yet seen has been secured and education, morality and the general welfare have been promoted. To reject these principles and this party would be to indict the glorious history of the nation for almost the past third of a century.

"You find a natural leader in the eminent public servant, the substantial results of whose wise and faithful administration furnish such inspiration for the canvass. I had expected to find associated with him my distinguished friend who now adorns the office of Vice President. As the delegation of my State and with it the representatives of the party at large have thought it politically wise to adhere to the doctrine of rotation in office I give me the right to claim not merely the earnest support of a united party, of which we are sure, but the best counsel and the most watchful personal assistance of all its faithful and experienced leaders without exception, to the end that this great Commonwealth may again throw its decisive vote as it did four years ago and indisputably can do again on the Republican side.

Sympathy Expressed for Blaine. "I cannot suppress on this occasion, in which he would have taken such a cordial interest, one word of affectionate recollection for my friend in so many Presidential campaigns, the great statesman whose present cruel bereavement, following hard upon two similar blows, has touched the tenderest sympathy of all, not merely of his political associates, but of both parties and of the whole country.

"My State, and I think I may venture to add my profession, will appropriate in the manner in which this nomination has been made and announced, deriving an added grace as it does from the unanimous vote from this body of representative men from every section of the country.

"The political sky is bright with promise. It seems a Republican year; and, invoking the favor of Almighty God upon a cause which we profoundly believe just, we may courageously face the contest with the confident hope of victory at the end."

ELECTRIC ROAD TO BRADDOCK.

The Second Avenue Company Purchases the Braddock and Turtle Creek Road and Will Run a Continuous Line There—A Park for the Twenty-Third Ward.

The Second Avenue Railway Company has purchased the Braddock and Turtle Creek Electric Railway with the view of extending their line to Braddock. The idea is to run the cars from Second Avenue to Braddock and Turtle Creek, the connecting link between the two lines to be built and equipped as quickly as possible.

William Yost, attorney for the Law and Order Society, held the biggest block of stock, amounting to $54,000, and controlled the Braddock road. The original capital stock was $50,000, but it was increased to $100,000 when the line had been running about four months. It is said that only 800 shares at $100 have been paid in.

Another phase of the deal is the fact that the Twenty-third ward will secure a fine park. The company has purchased the site opposite the old St. Michael's Seminary at the corner of Twenty-third and Second Avenue. This power house will take the place of the one at Brady street and Second Avenue. The plans are expected to be completed in a few days. The park will be over eight acres in size.

FOR NERVOUS EXHAUSTION Use Horford's KID PHOSPHATE Dr. H. C. McCoy, Algona, Ia., says: "I have used it in cases of dyspepsia, nervous exhaustion and weakness, with pleasant results. Also think it of great service in depression of the system resulting from biliary derangement."

An Educator of Music. The idea in inventing the Eolian was to make an instrument that a person could play without the years of practice made necessary by the piano and organ and at the same time to have it in no way mechanical, but capable of the most delicate shadings of tempo and expression entirely at will of the performer. The drugstore of learning to play is the instant practice necessary to enable a person to manipulate the keyboard, while the pleasure derived from giving the music feeling and expression. This understood, it was reasoned that if the execution could be done by the player, and the tempo and expression left under his control, the desired result would be achieved.

The Eolian is an embodiment of these ideas, and upon it with one week's practice a person with no musical education whatever can become a really fine performer. The great feature of the instrument is the high class of music it performs. The catalogue embraces nearly 5,000 pieces, including the symphonies, operas and structures of all the great masters. The rendition of these pieces is wonderfully accurate, and serves to make the Eolian a wonderful educator for both old and young.

SCUDDER SCOTTS

From This World Into the Next by the Morphine Route—The Physician Murderer Had Saved Doses Daily Until He Accumulated Sufficient for Suicide.

OTOAGO, June 21.—Dr. Henry Martin Scudder, the physician charged with the murder of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Dunton, and who was awaiting trial in the County Jail, died from the effects of a dose of morphine, apparently self-administered with suicidal intent, at an early hour this morning.

The doctor had been in good spirits during the day, reading and talking with the jail attendants, and seeming very cheerful in manner. At 8:30 the door of his cell was looked for the night. Soon afterward two of the night warders heard a series of deep groans issuing from the cell, and on entering they discovered Dr. Scudder in a dying condition. At 12:30 Dr. Scudder died without having regained consciousness.

George Painter, a condemned murderer who occupied the next cell to that of Dr. Scudder, said that the latter had been given morphine frequently in small quantities by the physician who had been attending him. From remarks he had heard in a doctor make, Painter thinks he had been saving the doses of morphine until he had accumulated a sufficient quantity to end his life. The object of the murder, it was claimed by the prosecution, was a determination to put her out of the way after having forged her will so that Scudder's wife would become her principal heir. Mrs. Dunton's skull was crushed by a heavy wooden club. Insanity was the plea offered, and the case was several times continued in the Criminal Court to secure testimony on the point from witnesses in India, where the doctor lived with his father, who was stationed there as a missionary. His trial was set for July.

The full quart of Gibson, Finch, Overholt and Bear Creek rye whiskeys bearing the signature of Max Klein can be relied upon as absolutely pure. Price $1 per full quart, or six quarts for $5.

Good Reason Why It Should. Mr. W. M. Terry, who has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for the past 12 years, says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other cough medicine I have ever sold. There is good reason for this. No other will cure a cold so quickly, no other is so certain a preventive and cure for croup; no other affords so much relief in cases of whooping cough."
